A Flavor Of Normandy

Synopsis

The tradition of exotic seasonings in Norman cooking goes back to the time of the spice trades when French ports were the gateway to Northern Europe. This truly exquisite cookbook contains dozens of step by step recipes. Lavishly illustrated with photographs and color illustrations. Full color.

Customer Reviews

The author has an impressive background and displays her knowledge very effectively in this gorgeous book! We are literally given a tour of Normandy and it is with great regret when the book ends! :) The recipes are authentic to the region and are very delightful. You are certain to please your family and impress your friends! The photography and artwork beautifully compliment the information that is presented about the food and culture of the people of Normandy! Anyone who is interested in French food and culture should take advantage of the bargain price for this wonderful book! :)
