Love At First Kiss (Christian Romance Collection Book 1)

Synopsis

Kiss first; ask questions later! Max is standing on the beach brooding, and holding an engagement ring he was trying to talk himself out of giving to a woman he doesn't love. Claire is trying to escape a blind-date gone very wrong when she encounters Max at the water's edge. When their lips meet before they do, what could possibly go wrong? He's the perfect out for her and she kisses him, begging him to humor her. He plays along, thinking he has nothing more to lose, and gives her the ring, throwing caution to the wind. After all, a fiancé is the perfect cover for a girl trying to wriggle out of a blind date; for Max, giving away the ring is the perfect way to escape being blackmailed by a blackmailing bridezilla, isn't it?
