Letter Sounds (Rock 'n Learn)

Synopsis

Fun music and engaging activities help kids learn to read. After a quick review of the alphabet, young learners discover the most common sound each letter makes. Next, excitement builds as kids race the clock to say letter sounds before hearing the answers. After identifying sounds heard in silly sentences, children combine letters to make words. Finally, they read stories composed of short sentences. Approximately 51 minutes. Ages 4-7.

Customer Reviews

"With this product, children will learn the sounds of letters with songs and games that help them learn reading skills. The music and illustrations hold attention and get results." -- Dr. Toy's 10 Best Children's Audio/Video Products "Dr. Toys 10 Best Childrens Audio/Video Products"

My son loves this. He just turned 4. It effectively has taught him all of his letter sounds. After two weeks of light use in the car (running errands, etc) he is able to respond with correct letters/sounds for words when I quiz him. I LOVE this learning tool. One suggestion I have is to adjust the balance on your car stereo (if using in the vehicle) to "talk radio" or an equivalent mode so that the voices are phonated most clearly. My son has speech articulation difficulties secondary to some conductive hearing loss and this tool has really been helping him to understand speech & sound construction.

Awesome for my 3 yr old to learn letter sounds

We learned our letter sounds in 1 week using this video in the car.

Very good for learning sounds. My son knew his sounds in a couple days with the help of this video. It can be a little boring and hard to get through for adults but the kids love it and they love the guessing games!!!!

Use this in my preschool class. The kids love singing along to the ABCs

So So!

Children love singing their alphabet to letter sound tunes; it quite catchy, you will have to get up and dance or shake your head to the music. It really engages children while they are learning at the same time!!!!

He looked for this everywhere and found it on Toys r us, however I like the convenience of using my cashback from Discover on
