Customer Reviews

I really enjoy Melanie Dickerson's books. This one is not her best, but still enjoyable.

The first two books are linked together as a series, but the third one is not character-related to the other 2 in the series. I enjoyed reading the first book, "The Huntress of Thornbeck Forest," because it reminded me a little bit of Robin Hood but with a twist. The second one, "The Beautiful Pretender," continues the storyline from the first, but reminded me a little bit of Beauty and the Beast vs Princess and the Pea. Enjoyed the character development in the second story and was wishing there was a third one to continue this storyline. The last book in this collection, "The Golden Braid" follows the fairy tale of Rapunzel, but with a great twist. You will enjoy all three and will want to continue reading other books by this author.
