Life: 100 Events That Shook Our World : A History In Pictures From The Last 100 Years

Synopsis

There has never been another period of time to compare with the last 100 years. From the Auto Age to the Computer Age, from Lindenberg to a man walking on the moon, our world has been an endless wellspring of unparalleled drama. Using their trademark brilliant photography and informative writing, the editors of "Life" have assembled a fascinating, engrossing volume that captures the happenings and the characters who have fleshed out this saga, names that will live through the ages: FDR and JFK, the Babe and Elvis, Einstein and Martin Luther King. And, of course, the likes of Hitler and Osama Bin Laden. This is a volume certain to entertain today and for generations to come.

Like trivial books

For me this was a perfect gift for an elderly gentleman's birthday, but in truth it is perfect for all ages--for anyone who is interested in the world which we all share. It is a book of history in pictures for the last 100 years. It enables us to look at a single photograph and learn, relive or simply just remember and romanticize about it. A perfect history tool for teaching all of us--sort of a "show and tell" in book form. The gentleman for whom I purchased this is 90 years young and it was his favorite birthday gift.

I gave this to my sister and brother in law. Apparently my brother in law has coveted the book. He says that when he's finished the other family members will get a turn. So much really interesting information. They are very pleased with my present.

This is a walk down memory lane. A perfect gift!!!! I have read through it several times. I am planning to give a copy to my 95-year-old mother-in-law for her birthday.

This was a wonderful Christmas gift.

Thanks

wonderful information.
