Noted Colorado historian Kenneth Jessen has over twenty books to his name, including Ghost Towns, Colorado Style (a three-volume set covering Colorado's mountains); Ghost Towns, Eastern Colorado; and Colorado's Best Ghost Towns.

This set of 3 books has been quite useful in our exploration of the Ghost Towns of Colorado. The first 2 volumes were purchased elsewhere but I wanted to complete the set of 3 so I found it on .

very good

Lots of interesting facts and the maps are very helpful. If you want to really get around and see lots of different parts of your area this is the book for you. Lots of great bio's of former residents.

If you're looking for a good historic reference book highlighting ghost town sites in the gold rush locations of Colorado.

I have all three Ghost town books. I live in Colorado and never leave home without them.

THIS BOOK WAS GOOD, I BOUGHT THE BOOK TO, GO SEE THE OLD GHOST TOWNS IN COLORADO, SINCE I HAVE LAND THERE NOW & CAN GO VISIT THESE TOWNS ON VACATIONS & TO SITE SEE..

Since I moved to Colorado 30 years ago I began researching and visiting Colorado's Ghost Towns. I spent countless hours researching and reading old books published by others only to go to a site and find nothing. After discovering Kenneth's books, The Ghost Towns Colorado Style series, my frequent trips to visit and photograph a ghost town site have been much more enjoyable. By using the books I know where to go and what to expect when I get there. On top of that I get the added bonus of some history about the location, Kenneth's books have made my life more enjoyable and I suggest that anyone interested in Colorado's Ghost town should buy all of his books.GREAT PRODUCT

Recently found Kenneth Jessen's Ghost Towns Colorado Style series. All of his books are gems in you're interested in exploring Colorado ghost towns. Especially love that he has divided the books into different Colorado regions. Volume Three was of particular interest this time to help me plan a leisurely trip with my family through southern Colorado to see points of interest during our next road trip. The author provides a brief synopsis/history of the ghost town, a valuable map to find the location of the ghost town, and since I won't be driving a 4WD this time, the type of road to the site (paved, dirt, graded/ungraded, etc.). Would absolutely recommend these books!
