Transylvanian Sunrise

Synopsis

Unbeknownst to most, there is an ancient sphinx located in the Bucegi Mountains of Romania. In 2003, the Pentagon discovered, through the use of satellite technology, an anomaly beneath this ancient sphinx. This book chronicles the discovery of these modern day artefacts.

A mysterious scientist by the name of David Anderson made an eventful trip to Romania in 1999. Dr. Anderson, who is credited by the U.S. government as having developed advanced time-warp field technology, established diplomatic connections on this trip to Romania where he also set up an advanced research facility dedicated to studying the mathematics of time travel. Upon his return to the United States, Dr. Anderson visited Preston Nichols and Peter Moon, internationally known authors of "The Montauk Project: Experiments in Time," and introduced himself. At Dr. Anderson's suggestion, a collaboration with Peter Moon began which was brief, tenuous and eventually aborted due to security considerations as result of a logistical attack on a similar time research center that had been set up on Long Island. Dr. Anderson's continued journeys to Romania eventually resulted in connecting Peter Moon with a Romanian publisher and Radu Cinamar, a member of the Romanian Intelligence Service's occult department. The purpose of this collaboration has to do with what is arguably the most significant archaeological discovery in the history of Mankind: a mysterious holographic hall of records that utilizes technology far beyond the concepts of modern science. "Transylvanian Sunrise" is the story of this mysterious discovery and the political intrigue surrounding it, all capably told by Radu Cinamar. After a five year hiatus in their relationship and after Peter Moon secured the publishing rights to this remarkable story, Dr. Anderson invited him to Romania where he has pursued these mysteries one step further. The story is inside this book and waiting to be read.

This is the first book of a series and is an amazing tale of persons involved in great discoveries that have strong implications for mans origins. I fortuitously read Sitchins "The Lost Book of Enki" before starting the Transylvanian series and it provided a broad background for Radu Cinmar's books. Transylvania Sunrise introduces the reader to a thrilling adventure via the experiences of the author "Cinmar" who through circumstance becomes involved in a discovery made by the U.S. Government using ground penetrating radar. There are many layers of intrigue, secrecy and powerful forces of suppression that vie for access and control of the find. There has been a good amount of criticism of these books as being science fiction, no proof etc. and the technology described would certainly fall into that category. To gain a balanced appreciation of these books and the truth they seem to testify to, one has to reflect on the world powers and the levels of secrecy that come into play when some resource is coveted. This takes the form of misdirection of motive, obfuscation of facts and cover up of actions. Other ancient exotic technology discoveries have been made in Afghanistan, Iran, South America, China and Antarctica, all of which are nexus points of focus and activities. World powers have known about the existence of ancient technology for a long time and in recent decades this knowledge has spawned high tech "Indiana Jones" expeditions to far flung places on Earth to capture as much of it as possible for all the usual reasons.

After decades of research i already knew most of what was in the book but the way the author explained it was is better than any other description thus far. Also so concepts I had never before understood put in simple terms. Describes how Evil works and is trying to control the world in a masterful way. Also I am delighted to have an example of a very evolved being so as to be able to seek to become his equal (yea I know I am dreaming and no way can reach such heights this incarnation). My highest praise! For other books that confirm the Evil see The Unseen Hand by Ralph Epperson, The Ultimate Frontier by Eklal Kueshana, Anastasia Series books by Vladimir Megre, and The Ultimate Reality by Joseph Cater (the suppressed physics that explain all known phenomena). A must read for all seekers after truth.

Amazing!! Everyone should read this book! It may be a little difficult for many people to accept at first but if they do a little research they will be surprised they have not been aware of a great many things going on around them in the world. Even if you do not choose to believe the information it is a great read. Despite the title it is not about vampires, at least not the vampires in the movies and books.

Please be patient when reading this fascinating book. You will get to the narrative of the interesting discoveries in the Bucegi Mountains, but first you will get acquainted with the workings of the freemasons, which we must all be aware of. It also describes the hidden motives of the US government to block this information from being freely given to mankind and the agreement it made with the Romanian government in this respect. Some people complain about not getting as much information as they want regarding the discoveries in the Bucegi Mountains, but it can't be revealed just now. I know we will have access to more knowledge when the time is right. In the meantime, I am very satisfied with what I have learned in this book and I am buying the other ones by Radu Cindamar.

A great introductory leap into the secret machinations of black operative, dark intentions, shadow government and the conspiracies of control aiming to keep the world in darkness and the populace asleep. Not all are ready for this knowledge. Those that are, proceed. Your intuitions are correct.

The first book of the series and everyone should read it. I happened to know someone in parliament in Romania and confirm this but even more information. The "true history" of planet Earth will wake you up to knowing how our world governments control us through their lies. The truth will set you free!!!

This is part of a series published by the people behind the Montauk series which is also unique and entertaining (at least the ones I've read, parts 2 and 3). This was originally written in Romanian and apparently sat on Peter Moon's desk for awhile before he read and decided to publish, thank goodness. Lots of esoteric info to think about as the characters are introduced, then get ready for what is, if true, one of the most important discoveries in history, plus a good bit about Masonry at global levels.

I was really excited to read this book, as my mom had read the original Romanian version. I ordered it in English because it's faster for me that way. Regardless, I felt like the story took FAR TOO LONG to get to the point. Like, the whole book too long. I understand that it was kind of necessary to backstory it with all the information that was presented, but I was restless by the first third of the book. Also, as another reviewer said, it promised all kinds of cool answers and information, but I feel like it very much fell flat there. I mean, I completely understand the whole "I can't actually tell you all these cool secrets because I will probably die if I do" thing, so in a way it was an expected disappointment. But in another way, I was half-hoping this book would be like this amazingly awesome book of mind-blowing information. And it kind of wasn't as amazingly mind-blowing as I had imagined it to be.
