You will all think this is BS but with God as my witness it's true. I tried an 11 day spell from this book at the same time I was using a spell from the same author's "Word of Power" and believe it or not I created a servitor from a third book by the author. All was aimed at working together towards one specific goal. I was going to be out of a job soon if the company I work for did not win a $39 million contract with the government. We had 5 other more seasoned companies bidding against us. I worked the 11 day spell, waited 3 days and began a second 11 day spell just as a sort of "booster shot". Again, servitors deployed and words of power spoken each day as well. Today is the 11th day of the second 11 day cycle. I finished the spells and committed myself to just forget about the whole thing and wait to see. It was supposed to be another 6-8 weeks before we knew about the contract. Less than 1 hour after I completed the last spells and put the whole thing to bed - I recieved an email from my Director telling me we won the contract against all those other companies. I kid you not. I was floored. All along I was thinking "These spells are too easy." and "Is it possible that it is really this simple?". Evidentially it is not necessary to dance around bonfires at midnight on the 29th of February on a leap year inside a pentagram drawn with virgin goats blood while reciting Shakespearean texts in German afterall. Brand is my freaking hero now!

You can never go wrong with a Damon Brand book. Well written, clear, understandable, usable and most of all every word leads to success. Whether you are years into your studies of the occult or very new, Mr. Brand creates books that you can use...and succeed with. It's great to read theory and learn history, but in truth, much like the study of medicine, if only historical and theoretical...where and how would healing take place? As it is with the books from Mr. Brand, and his fellow Gallery of Magick authors, they are usable methods of actually achieving magickal results. Add to that the gracious accessibility of the author on Facebook and the Gallery of Magick sites and it is obvious he is not only creating great books but actually cares about those reading them...a rarity. Thanks Mr. Brand for this, and all of your books. I'm truly grateful and highly recommend this and all of Mr. Brand's books.

I have completed two rituals for a specific goal and they have manifested. I am very pleased and feel grateful for what I have manifested. Once again..Thank you Angels ..and... Damon for making this possible.

My only qualm with this book is that it is based on information that differs from more traditional sources, such as the Golden Dawn. For example, some of the "powers" don't seem compatible with GD's "meanings" for each of the 72 angels in the Shem ha-Mephorash. That's part's okay, but what really rustles my jimmies is the zodiacal attributions. I prefer the GD's zodiacal attributions. That might just be me. I still give it five stars, though, because the rituals in it are simple and effective. I really like the seals for each angel and the process of systematically scanning your eyes across them. It changed the way I look at magick. Also, I'll give you a suggestion that worked for me. Print out the Shem talisman. Scan the seal for the angel and print that out, too. Write out the ritual into two pages, split at the point where you switch from the Shem talisman to the angelic seal. Be sure to include your request to the angel. Then, record yourself speaking the entire ritual, including the instructions and the chants. I did this in garageband easily. It's very easy to modify for future use when I need to use a different angel.

All of GOM books (have several) are excellent work. Love their products & their authors. Great writing style as well. It's refreshing, clear & concise reading. Great not to have to read dribbling on about inane nonsense & stupidity (for lack of a better thing to call it at moment of writing this) that is typical & almost standard practice of other occult etc; books read (so damned boring & pointless to read all that nonsense). I've never found this with ANY of the GOM authors & their books (have several, though not all of them yet lol) which is such a pleasure & enjoyment unto itself--for starters!

GOM keep up the great work! Love your books & work! I'd give more than 5 stars if able but the review site on here only goes up to 5 stars. How about 5+++++ stars? Again love your work, writings & authors. Keep up the great work.

Phenomenal work! I've used the rituals in this and they simply do not fail. All of Brand's offerings are superb. He writes succinctly and with very good understanding of the subject and of the audience. It's a must-own for anyone interested in the subject of magick. To say it is life-changing is an understatement. It's life-enhancing. This is the first of Brand's books that I own. After reading it and using it, I now own 12 of his books.

Read the book through once and now re reading to make sure I get the rituals. But I really like the principles Brand presents. The funny thing is that Twenty Years ago I would never have bought a book like this, but my mind has been opened recently into inter dimensional states of reality. Previously I read much on Jewish Mysticism and this book complements the principles discovered in that literature. If you can get beyond the 'culture wars' which attack books like this and still keep and open mind, I think this book will be of merit to you.

I absolutely love Damon's books. They are the best on the subject. Damon generously shares techniques that really work. I'm so impressed. I'm just speechless. OUTSTANDING. AMAZING. MAGICAL. Thank you.
