I'll start by saying I am a huge NBC (Nightmare Before Christmas) fan. I watch the movie several times a year and I have a large NBC collection. A month ago I saw this coloring book was being released I was extremely excited and pre-ordered it. I received it last night and every time I look through it I am very disappointed. The pages are perforated, but that is one of the few good things about the book. The designer of the book was extremely lazy in character selection and page design. Out of all of the possible, colorful characters the only characters featured in the book are Jack, Sally, Lock, Shock, Barrel, Oogie Boogie, The Mayor, Zero and Dr. Finkelstein and they are only featured on about half of the pages. The other half are random shapes, tombstones, skulls and mostly colorless items. When they have Lock, Shock and Barrel coloring pages, they colored most of their clothing black. They also colored most of Sally's dress black too. I've attached some pictures, some of the good pages and some of the lazy pages. The pages with skulls, vertical stripes is repeated multiple times. I would not recommend this book to any fan.

Very disappointed. This had so much potential. After all, there are parts of the movie that are very colorful and would have been extremely fun to color. Oogie Boogie's Lair for instance. Christmas Town. Jack's Experiments. Jack as Santa Claus. The actual Santa Claus. Even the tree ring of different holidays. Not a single one of these things were in the book. Not one. It's almost like they tried to pick out the best parts of the movie and (laughing behind their hands and the idiots who are fan enough to pre-order sight unseen) decided to leave out all the best parts. And the parts they did include that would have had some potential for your individual creativity they decided to color in black just to prevent such blatant creativity. Most of the pages are wallpaper. Cool NBC wallpaper, but wallpaper nonetheless. In fact, I counted 79 pages of wallpaper, some with a small central figure, or figures, but most with nothing but a repeating pattern. Over 75% of the book! I gave 2 stars because if I were planning to keep it, which I'm not, there are maybe 2 or 3 pages I might enjoy coloring. And also because the pages are perforated. Save your money. Someone will make their own with cheap paper and sell them for 5 bucks. And no matter how terrible the copies, or how flimsy the paper, it will undoubtedly be better than this dross.

I have never been more excited about a coloring book!!! The letters on the cover are a pretty metallic purple, and the artwork inside isn't super cheesy lol! Love love it! I may have a hard time coloring it in. This artwork reminds me of the sketchy style of Tim Burton's original works that are in the NBC poem book...and the original story boards..if i color this, i will use the same color pallet mr Burton gave his designers :) for the money, I would buy another.

The ONLY reason I'm giving this even a 2 star rating is because it's TNBC related, and I'm absolutely crazy over the theme. However, the pictures in this coloring book really disappointed me. Wayyyy too much black; not enough room to color! Also, the pictures themselves are repetitive and blah. I was expecting pictures like Sally's potions, or even of the town, tombstones/Halloween-themed items, maybe Zero's dog house, or Christmas-town and the train. Instead, they just seemed to throw together a bunch of random bats and pumpkins because "it fit." Overall, boring, and sad. Worth $5, not the $14 I paid.

First off, i love nightmare before christmas and adult coloring. This book isn't that great. I was super disappointed. The items in the book are hard to color. Plus half of the items in the book aren't really nightmare before christmas characters.

Oh my heck, I was so excited to get this. It's perfect, I might have to get another one so I can color at least one and leave the other as is. Well done with this coloring book!

Granddaughter fell in love, perfect for her air plane trip! she is a big fan!

Loved this book it was alot bigger that I was expecting
