Pre-Islamic Carpets And Textiles From Eastern Lands (Al-Sabah Collection)

Synopsis

• A crucial reference for anyone interested in the earliest surviving pile carpets. . . Primarily a resource for scholars, this volume is nonetheless full of beautiful works of exceptional historical interest. . . Highly recommended. • Choice This volume in Thames & Hudson's celebrated series cataloging the al-Sabah collection features a unique collection of carpets and textile fragments from the pre-Islamic and early Islamic world. The Sasanian fragments fill a substantial gap in the early history of pile carpets, dating from the second to the eighth century AD, and make a valuable contribution to the understanding of local artistic traditions. The second half of the book is devoted to post-Sasanian and Sogdian silks dating from the sixth to the tenth century. A wave of these beautiful textiles has reached the West since the turn of the 21st century, and here they are divided into variants featuring birds, mammals, and mythological creatures, which retain their glowing colors and lively charm. 60 color illustrations

Friedrich Spuhler is the author of many books on textiles including Carpets from Islamic Lands.

A very interesting book, sheds light on the early rugs and textiles between Pazyryk and Seljuks.

Well illustrated!

A really esoteric study of some previously unknown textiles from the ancient silk road. The structure is not entirely explained in some of the piled pieces.
