Customer Reviews

This guide is great for getting started in your trip planning. It also includes information on eastern and central Croatia in addition to the coast. Some guides ignore the east. The pictures in the guide are wonderful and give you glimpses of what to expect. There are many helpful general travel insights that you need like information on changing money, use of credit cards, tipping, local customs, etc. We don't plan to stay and eat in the major tourist cities so the food and lodging info isn't that helpful to us. But overall, this guide was worth the money for when I can't be on the web getting info. The book has a British slant since it's from a British publisher but if you don't need all the references to be in dollars that won't be a problem.

You will not find a lot of current books on traveling in Croatia since the fighting only ended about 15 years ago and the travel writers seem to always take a long time before reviewing a country in depth. This book is typical Eyewitness quality and most of all up to date. We leave on a cruise to Croatia in a few weeks and wanted something we could review and learn a little about the country. This book has a good history of the country plus many interesting sites to visit. We do not purchase travel books for hotel accommodations or dining in restaurants as the internet is normally more up to date. This is a good quality book and ordering online we got it at a great price plus fast free shipping at the time we ordered.

Great book for pre travel

The book was a great guide. It helped us not waste time wondering what to do and see while in country this fall. It narrows the search and focuses on what is important to see and do. Best guide ever to see a city or country. Best of all, it is accurate in its descriptions and directions.

This is a fine book, although a bit worn. Still an outstanding value. I am collecting books on travel. Thank you very much. Mark Koslosky Nice quality, easy to follow. Loved it.

Before we traveled to Croatia we purchased this book and learned about all of the beautiful places we were to see and enjoy.

The book is informative and in great used condition. The owner mailed it to us in a very timely fashion. We are very pleased.
