Customer Reviews

I had been planning to take a trip to Malta and I recently came across this book which really helped me create a to do list for my trip to Malta. The places to visit and the author's recommendations are really interesting and I am definitely going to try and check these places out.

Most of the places mentioned are not secrets and are mainstream. The author even warns you about how crowded some of the places are. I am not saying that the places mentioned in the book are not beautiful. They are not secrets. It might be worth $1 for the work put into this. It seems that you can get away with mediocre content and still charge almost $4 for 30 pages of doodoo

Malta is a beautiful European country. This book was able to show its readers how beautiful this country is with its nature, its culture and urban sights. The book also contains the restaurants that you can try to dine in like a local would. It is a bustling country. A country that can be considered as underrated as what the book suggests.

Way too few recommendations. I know it is small, but I saw nothing the other guides don't have. Not even worth the $2.99
