Opening with the Emancipation Proclamation, Haugen sets the stage for Lincoln's significance in American history. Photos, maps, and period illustrations illuminate this broad overview of a complicated man, and a time line sets the story in relation to wo --School Library Journal

Brenda Haugen started in the newspaper business and had a career as an award-winning journalist before finding her niche as an author. Since then, she has written more than 50 books and edited hundreds more, most of them for children. A graduate of the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks, Brenda lives in North Dakota with her dog, Alice, who chose Brenda when she went to the Humane Society thinking she was there to adopt another dog.
