For a $6 book, this one is good. I bought it for some extra recipes for use on the Whole 30 plan.

Here are some pros and cons I found...Pros - recipes are easy to follow, great for beginners & those with more cooking experience, lots of choices, the drink section has lots of ideas and alternatives for those of us hooked on soda and I appreciate the alternatives. I know putting fruit into water isn't a new idea but when you're used to popping soda cans all day long, it's refreshing to have lots of new ideas. I love the way it's broken up into breakfast, lunch and dinner. Recipes can fit with Whole 30.Cons - I bought this book because it had slow cooker recipes but they were very disappointing. All 10 recipes are for stew and that's it. There's beef stews, chicken stew, pork stews, fish stew, oxtail stew, and veal stew. Nothing else! This was my biggest complaint. I love my slow cooker and I know it makes more than stew!

I find this almost useless the way the recipes are written makes me crazy.not one recipe sounded good.maybe its from another country? It is not whole30 its a rip off of it.totally wasted my money on it.stick to the real deal if you want whole30 this is....Not good

This plan has changed my life. This book is very easy to read, easy to follow and straight forward. After 30 days I couldn't believe how much more energy I had. I feel less tired, less sick and just overall more healthy. Will recommend this to everyone!

This book has simply what you need for your whole 30-day challenge. The author did a good job with the food recipes for this period ! Can't wait to get started with my 30-day challenge.Â¢Â Â¢

Not bad. It had some things in it I didn't need, but it was still pretty decent.

This is the kind of diet I've been looking for. I tried other diet programs before, but I always end up starving myself. This is a great guide and cookbook. The whole30 diet challenge you to replace all the processed foods with whole ones for 30 days. The recipes here don't leave you hanging. It has the daily meals - breakfast, lunch and dinner. I might try this 30-day challenge. I am so excited for the results. This book is worth reading.

great book. It was quite helpful

I agree with just about everything this book says. I've used this plan and lost 60 plus pounds along with working out. Fell and have had to knee surgery, then fell off my The plan. The plan works you just have to commit.
