Customer Reviews

This ebook is a joke, a waste of $3.00. The authors history and facts are incredibly inaccurate. Their descriptions are worse than what one could find on Wikipedia - which, by the way is where they most likely obtained (or copied) their brief descriptions. The portion on East Germany is a joke overall. They clearly don't know what was an award of the National People's Army, versus a State award. The discussion on the Federal Republic's two highest awards, don't even show the full range that exists within the honor system. Overall, the "book" looks like some high school paper that was put together in the last 12 hours, if not closer, to when it was due. I recommend you stay FAR away from this joke of a text. You can get better information off the web at any variety of sites. It would be cheaper, and you can use the $3 to buy lotto tickets, which would be less of a waste of money than buying this "book." If it were possible, I'd give it no stars.

a comprehensive listing which provides a good basis for reference to the many medals and awards of the German Army

You get what you pay for, a lesson learned. Simply, a single photo, simple description and not much else. The internet is a far better resource.
