Customer Reviews

This is a great collection of easy to play old standards. Chords are included for more advanced players who may want to improvise, but advanced beginners/early intermediate players will have fun too. The only gripe I have about this book is that it doesn't come spiral bound, making it hard to get the pages to cooperate. I'm going to punch holes and put the collection in a spiral notebook. Otherwise, a good value.

This is a fantastic songbook. Arrangements put together very well. I use with midi background and most are in same or almost same key. Great for basic arrangements to add your own touch to. I highly recommend this book for purchase.

I have enjoyed playing the music in this book. I'm a beginner piano player, but I'm able to play many of the songs. I would recommend it to others.

Wonderful compilation of many favorites from the Great American Songbook. Will enjoy learning to play these tunes for years to come. Arrived in new condition. As others have noted, the binding is a drawback, but a minor one as I'm sure spiral or comb binding would have raised the cost significantly for a book of this size. Am quite pleased with this purchase.

Great arrangements with chords and fingerings.

As advertised

Such an amazing find for really fun sheet music.

Good variety of songs. The arrangements are fairly easy, but not too simplistic.
